

Meet FAWL's Executive Committee

Susan Fox
FAWL PRESIDENT
Hillsborough Association for Women Lawyers

What career would you choose today?

Probably the same. Maybe psychology. Definitely not the Weather Underground.

Most satisfying professional accomplishment:

Seeing Tammy Duque receive clemency—while I can't claim this as "my accomplishment," I know it would not have happened without my help.

Professional moment you'd most like to forget: Fumbling for the wrong answer during oral argument.

Hours billed in last 12 months: About 1,500.

Non-billable hours in last 12 months: Who knows? Probably 800, mostly FAWL.

COMMITMENT

Most important commitment outside of work: The kids, of course.

Most important commitment at work: Maintaining excellence in appellate advocacy.

Least important commitment outside of work: Housework and sailing.

Why do you still commit to it? Sailing? It keeps me sane! Housework? Well, somebody has to do it and the kids refuse.

Least important commitment inside of work: If I could answer this question, I would resign from it immediately. Some might say I don't give billing enough attention.

Why do you still commit to it? Billing? Unfortunately, my firm wouldn't let me practice without it.

CAPABILITIES

Three greatest strengths: Courage, passion, tenacity.

Three greatest weaknesses: Courage, passion, tenacity—or one might describe their flip sides as: foolhardy bravado, high emotionality and being stubborn.

CONFESSIONS

Favorite snack food: Peanuts, pretzels.

Favorite airplane reading: Cruising World (sailing magazine).

Favorite vacation in last 5 years: A week lying on the beach in the South of France.

Favorite guilty pleasure: Chocolate and red wine (every now and then).

Describe last time you played "hooky" from work: Relandscaped my yard and planted a rose garden.

CONFIDENTIAL

Hometown: Tampa, Florida.

Life Partner: Nobody, but I'm looking.

Children: Two—Betty, 16, and Sarah, 11.

Pets: 2 cats.

College and Law School: Double Gator—University of Florida.

CAREER

Why did you become an attorney? Driven by personal ambition to make something of myself, together with naive desire to protect individual liberties and to save the world without joining the Weather Underground.

Siobhan H. Shea

FAWL PRESIDENT-ELECT

Palm Beach County Chapter

CONFIDENTIAL

Hometown: Palm Beach, Florida.

Life Partner: Jeff Anderson,

Pets: Two horses, two cats, one 18-year-old Yorkie and a fish.

College: Earlham College, Bachelor's in Political Science.

Law School: University of Miami School of Law, J.D. Cum Laude 1991.

CAREER

Why did you become an attorney?

To fight for justice and equality.

What career would you choose today? Law.

Most satisfying professional accomplishment: Helping clients, especially children; professional recognition receiving The Florida Bar President's Pro Bono Award and the American Immigration Attorney's Human Rights award.

Professional moment you'd most like to forget: Doing cross-examination for the first time ever in someone else's case.

COMMITMENT

Most important commitment outside of work: Raising my children.

Most important commitment at work: Clients.

CAPABILITIES

Three greatest strengths: Intelligence; inner fortitude; creativity.

Three greatest weaknesses: Chocolate; remembering things I should learn to forget.

CONFESSIONS

Favorite snack food: Popcorn.

Favorite airplane reading: A good novel (latest is True at First Light by Hemingway).

Favorite vacation in last 5 years: With husband at an unnamed beach.
